

DISL Automatic – Salt Water (BIG Bars)

Where there's light there is dark, they are one in the same
Ying and the Yang
The love with the struggle and pain
Like the anger that pumps through the blood in my vein
It drove me insane I almost put a gun to my brain and let it bang!
And get it over with
But if I go out I'ma go out on some soldier shit
Geah, I'm paranoid I think my minds playing tricks on me
What you expect? I seen my main homie snitch on me
They say that's just the price you pay
When you choose to live your life that way
Uneducated...There's a war in the streets, we're collateral damage
And they wonder why we living like we animals, savage!
The hustler's mentality's understandable
But nonetheless you are nothing more than a cannibal
Feasting off of others and leaving them there to die slow
YOLO is your motto but are you ready to die for
All the fancy thing that you talk about in your rhyme flow
Say that's just the way you are but never ask why though
Most people just accept that I can understand it but never will I respect that I ain't perfect but I know that if I try to be Worst thing that'll happen is I'll be the best that I can be
These are my philosophies
Lyrically I'm a prodigy
Since I was a kid I gave sucka rappers lobotomies
All that frontin' stop it
Go find another topic
Cause all these rappers talk about is how they puffin' chronic
Wow that takes a lot of skill don't it?
If you wanna battle we can put a Mill on it
Chill homie, cause I don't got a mill to bet
Still I bet you feel the threat because I am the realest yet
Tell me what's the cost of life to get the fuel to fill your jet?
And what exactly would it take for you to feel regret huh?!
Outta sight outta mind right?

Guess you don't see nothing when you're blinded by the limelight
I rhyme tight and spit lyrics with a divine might
I waited 7 years and finally the time's right
No controlling him
Lyrical darts I'm throwin' em
On the microphone I rip bone apart like Napoleon
Only in America, land of the shopping malls
Fast food and alcohol and people who don't doubt at all
Things they're told by the leaders that they choose
'Til one day they wake up with no freedom left to loose
They read it in the news and see it on the tube
All that propaganda got people believing that it's true
What makes you think that the government wouldn't lie to us?
What's in them classified documents that they hide from us?
Every move's calculated, nothing is coincidence
False flag Ops like the Gulf of Tonkin incident
This ain't conspiracy theory, this a fact
They lied about 'Nam, you think it's different with Iraq?
Think it's different with Iran?
All their wars are just a scam
How are they protecting us by killing kids in distant lands huh?!
They say they're spreading their democracy
Could it possibly be that they're spreading their plutocracy?
They'll never stop going to war until we're all slaughtered
Getting money and power's like drinking salt water!
